NEW CLUB IN LACOSTE

V. F. W. Auxiliary Formed There
First In Eleventh District

MRS. IRENE SALZMAN
ELECTED PRESIDENT

Little LaCoste is in the lead in VFW affairs. Last week LaCoste became the first town in the entire district, stretching from Antonio to Del Rio, to start Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary post.

Ladies met in the LaCoste public school Tuesday, Aug. 12, and elected Mrs. Irene Salzman president of the new organization. Other officers include Pearl Morey, vice president; Myrtle Eberle, junior vice president; Agnes Atkinson, treasurer; Kittie Marie Atkinson, chaplain; Florentine Bohl, matron; Brenda Adam, guard; Marcelle Echtle, trustee for three year term; Mrs. Marvin Frerster, trustee for two year term; Helen Frerster, trustee one year term; and Mae Zeinert, secretary.

Meeting nights will coincide with those of the V. F. W. post, 8 p.m. the second Tuesday of the month. Officers will be installed by a San Antonio delegation in October.

August Brucks

Buried Aug. 13

at Quihi

Funeral services were held at Quihi Funeral home Aug. 13 at 1 p.m. for August Henry Brucks of the Quihi area who was found dead in bed two days before at about 6 a.m. at the age of 61. The deceased was born January 1886, in the Quihi community, son of Bernhard B. Brucks and Sophie, nee Marquis. Baptism, confirmation and early schooling took place there and he went into the stock-raising and farming profession when still young.

He was married to Hermina Schmalko on Feb. 26, 1914, and couple had four children, Marcelline of Quihi, Nora of San Antonio, Annie of Hondo and Herman who lives at home with the mother. All of the children survive.

The deceased was strong and healthy most of his life, although troubled with various ailments in later years which included failing sight. In the past year he seemed to have regained his former health until the day when he was found dead.

Survivors include the widow, four children, two brothers, Ralph L. of Hondo and Walter of Upper Quihi, two sisters, Mrs. Louis C. Saathoff of Upper Quihi and Mrs. Emil C. Saathoff of Quihi, and many other relatives. Interment was at the New Quihi cemetery with Rev. C. Weeber officiating. Pallbearers were Raymond Neuman, Clarence Neuman, Walter Saathoff, Milton Brucks, Peter Saathoff and Neal Saathoff.

TEAM OF THE WEEK - CASTROVILLE

These Castroville battlers are hoping hard for a second place tie with D' Hanis and the chance to battle Hondo in the playoffs for the championship. Top row, left to right, are Oscar Suehs, Dodson, Stan Jagge, Tom Hoog, Blackie Tschirhart

Second Legion V. F. W. Dance To Be Aug. 23

Semi-annual street dance and carnival of the Hondo Volunteer Fire Department will be held on the street between the court house and court house square Saturday, Aug. 30.

False date for the firemen's dance in Sparks slipped by an early press run. Dance date is Aug. 30 and court house square Saturday, Aug. 30.

Goal of the firemen is to better their spring dance net of $1,500 in order to make another sizeable payment on their new equipment which will be completely new and modern when completed.

Same committees as those working on the spring dance have been reappointed for the fall affair, and it is reported that dance tickets are selling out fast.

According to one unofficial estimate, the sale grossed over $90,000 for the War Assets Administration.

Some bidders had no doubt as to their prospects of getting what they wanted. Two different men, from the town of Medina in Bandera County, came prepared with moving equipment, bought their buildings, completed the contracts and moved them out the same day.

Weather Hot - Take Salt With Drinks

Highest temperature for the week Aug. 12-18 was 97 degrees, reached on Aug. 16 and 18, and reaching well over 90 degrees every day of the week. Low point was 73, the same on every night of the week except Aug. 13 when it was 75. The week was clear except for a drizzle on Aug. 18 which amounted to 0.03 inches.

Castroville will be the scene of Sunday's biggest gathering, as the Catholic church there sponsors the annual homecoming and barbecue picnic. Last year's crowd numbered into the thousands, and this year plans are being made to take care of even more. Like D' Hanis, Castroville merchants and professional men have again this year sponsored a full page in The Anvil Herald to help insure the biggest possible crowd. Further details will be found on page 3.

NEW SALVAGE COMPANY AT HONDO AIRFIELD

Formation of a new company in Hondo was announced this week, as the Hondo Salvage Company began operations at the airfield.

R. J. Zerr, George Schuehle and T. J. Grimsinger have formed a partnership, and are continuing salvage business. They have purchased several buildings at the Hondo Airfield, and plan to buy materials and fixtures from other persons who may have purchased buildings at the recent sales.

Thirty three Medina County Home Demonstration Club women attended the annual Medina County H. D. Encampment held last Thursday, Aug. 14, at Biediger Grove, Castroville.

Program included handicraft work in the use of liquid plastic in making plastic flowers, in which all participated after a demonstration by Mrs. E. M. Delavan of Biediger.

A basket lunch was spread under the pecan trees for the noon meal, at which Mr. and Mrs. Albert Biediger were guests, and in the afternoon there was a sale of handmade articles for the benefit of the H. D. Council fund. All articles were made by the members.

CHURCH BULLETIN

The Hondo Nazarene church reopened last Sunday. Schedule calls for Sunday School at 10 a.m. and Preaching at 11 a.m. with Rev. M. S. Burkhardt.

SPEECE ATTENDS "LOST BATTALION" REUNION

Jack Speece of Hondo was among the approximately 200 members of World War II's "Lost Battalion" last weekend when the survivors convened in Abilene. With him were Mrs. Jack Speece and Mrs. Bonita Proctor.

The Lost Battalion, 2nd battalion of the 131st Field Artillery, was on the island of Java when the Japanese invaded. Of the 500 captured there, only 200 were liberated from Japanese prison camps at war's end after over three years in the hands of the Japs.

Services At Castroville For Milton H. Oppelt

Services were held at St. Louis Catholic Church, Castroville, Friday morning, Aug. 8 for Milton Harvey Oppelt, 25, who passed away in Brook General Hospital, San Antonio, Aug. 9.

The deceased was son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Oppelt of near Devine, and was born May 31, 1922. He received his education at Shook school in Medina County and lived here until he entered the army in 1942. After being stationed in various camps in the United States he went overseas in December of 1943 where he was with the Ninth A. A. F. in England before going to France. Later, after a return to England, and Belgium for nine months, he volunteered for the Combat Engineers under Patton's Third Army with which he went through France reaching Germany on Easter Sunday. Oppelt was one of the combat engineers who preceded the Infantry at the famed Dambu crossing.

He was discharged from the army on May 5, 1946, and Oct. 9 of last year was married to Miss Irene Dugosh of Yorktown. His health began failing about four months ago and he was sent to an army hospital in Georgia for treatment, later being transferred to Brook General where he died.

Pallbearers at the funeral were all ex-servicemen: Virgil Newman, Dennis Tschirhart, Pat Mangold, Spettel Bendele, Howard Haas and Roy James Tschirhart, Weiss-Wurbach Post, American Legion, acted as honor guard. Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Irene Oppelt, his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Oppelt; three sisters, Mrs. Caroline Bassett, Virginia and Laura Oppelt; and three brothers, James, Albert and Willie Jr. One brother, Eugene, preceded him in death in August, 1945.

He is survived by his widow, one son, Rueben V. Cude of Oklahoma City, five daughters, Mrs. Earnest George, Big Foot; Mrs. Jack Gladney, Alice; Mrs. R. E. Lindsey, Mrs. B. A. Dixon, and Mrs. O. E. Allburger all of San Antonio; thirteen grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the Church of Christ and burial in the Big Foot cemetery on Wednesday afternoon.

Castroville And LaCoste Open Week Early; Three Adopt New Salary Scales

Hondo, LaCoste And Yancey Over $2,000

With August drawing to a close and the masses of Medina County youth stocking up ahead of time on school supplies and clothes, County Superintendent of Schools C. F. Schuehrs announced this week that all rural schools of the county will open Sept. 8.

Similarly, all of the town schools except two will open on that date. Two exceptions are Castroville and LaCoste, both of which open their doors on Tuesday, Sept. 2.

When the doors open again, three of the county schools will be paying teachers on the new salary schedule: Hondo, LaCoste and Yancey.

Castroville

Walter W. Wooley is new principal of the Castroville school, where all students are asked to be present at 9 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 2. According to Wooley, repairs have been made on the school building and additional recreation equipment has been installed.

Other teachers at the Castroville school are Mrs. Bessie Sittre and Mrs. Hermina Sittre, neither of whom are new.

D' Hanis

Over at D' Hanis, one of the largest school districts in the county, the school opens Sept. 8 with a brand new homemaking department and a fully accredited homemaking teacher, Mrs. Doyle W. Morton of Sabinal, who has a degree and a Smith-Hughes certificate. The PTA kitchen has been enlarged for the classes until the new building has been erected.

New Field house built for boys will be ready when school starts, and when materials and labor are available more features will be added, starting with a girls rest room.

New teachers for this year are Mrs. Morton and Miss Vivian Biry. Miss Joyce Monita is new teacher in the Latin American school. J. M. Slavik continues as superintendent, and Mrs. Carey Langfeld is high school principal. Other teachers are V. M. Schulz, Mrs. O. R. Humble and Mrs. Amos Finger. In the Latin American school one teacher still must sign the contract.

Registration will be on Monday, Sept. 8, and Tuesday will be the first day of classwork. Miss Biry will direct the pep squad and Mrs. Finger the H. S. choral club.

There will be a full schedule of supervised athletics, including six-man football.

Victor Belzung Dies Aug. 15

Victor Belzung, 83, old time resident of Castroville, passed away last Friday, Aug. 15, in a San Antonio hospital after a five month illness. Services were held at Tondre Funeral home at 9:30 a.m. Aug. 16 with interment at St. Louis cemetery.

He was born in Castroville Jan. 13, 1863, and has lived chiefly in Kimble county since then. Son of Frank and Paulina Belzung, he has been a stockman all his life.

Surviving are one son, Louis, of San Antonio; two grandchildren, Leroy Belzung of San Antonio and Mrs. Erwin Tschoppe of New Braunfels; and a brother, Eugene, of San Antonio.

Pallbearers were Robert, Johnnie and Oscar Belzung, August Streich, Eugene Weimers and Robert Burkholder.

V. H. Cude Dies At Big Foot

DEVINE — Von Hardaman Cude, 78, a pioneer of this section died at his home in Big Foot, Aug. 12, where he had lived since a small child. He was a farmer until he retired several years ago.

He is survived by his widow, one son, Rueben V. Cude of Oklahoma City, five daughters, Mrs. Earnest George, Big Foot; Mrs. Jack Gladney, Alice; Mrs. R. E. Lindsey, Mrs. B. A. Dixon, and Mrs. O. E. Allburger all of San Antonio; thirteen grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the Church of Christ and burial in the Big Foot cemetery on Wednesday afternoon.

Elsewhere in the county, W. H. Taylor continues as superintendent at the Yancey school, and Miss Maudie Duncan and Mrs. Frank Hartman are teachers. Both teachers for the coming year at the Black Creek school are new, Miss Gibbs and Miss Gilbreth. Mrs. Grace Mathis is the new teacher at Rothe school and Mrs. Annie Fletcher is new teacher at Verdena.

None of the other county school teachers are new. Mrs. Alvin Bales teaches at Rio Medina, Mrs. Emma Oeffinger at Upper Quihi, Mrs. Kate Morris at Longview. Mr. Ketch and Mrs. Joyce Mittanck handle the students at Shook, and Mrs. Ruby Thomas and Mrs. Hazel Saddler will teach at Big Foot.

Live Oak school pupils will be taught by Miss Cora Rogers. At New Fountain Mrs. Jack Sharp continues as teacher, and Mrs. Howard Payne teaches at Vandenburg.

THE SWING OF TEXAS MARKETS

Most farm products sold steady to strong last week, but many weak spots developed in livestock and vegetable markets, according to the production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Cotton prices broke sharply following the government cotton crop report, but rallied late in the week to close mostly 25 to 75 cents lower. Lowered quality in South Texas caused by recent rains slowed interest of buyers who want higher grades.

Grain markets showed more settled tendencies last week. Wheat and barley changed very little, while corn and oats made slight gains, and sorghums closed a little higher after some fluctuation. Varying weather conditions in the corn belt affected the daily market on feed grains, and more new crop Texas corn was sold.

Alfalfa hay found active demand at higher prices, but prairie hay turned slow and draggy. Farmers' stock peanuts met good demand in South Texas, where picking increased. Wool buyers slowed activities in order to inventory recent heavy purchases.

Northern Colorado potatoes sold about steady last week, but San Luis Valley peas and cauliflower dropped to lower levels. Watermelons moved in somewhat unsettled markets, as changing weather conditions affected quality as well as demand. Liberal supplies of ordinary to fair quality tomatoes brought lower prices. Onions and potatoes found rather dull markets. Plentiful peaches held about steady.

Top quality eggs sold a trifle higher on most southwest markets last

MUMME'S HATCHERY

HONDO, TEXAS

This is the time when many poultry raisers should be thinking about housing their birds for the fall and winter. Housing is an important task, one which requires plenty of preparation. If the job is done well, it means the poultry raiser has taken the first step toward achieving high winter egg production and toward giving his flock the protection it needs against disease.

Make Necessary Repairs

The first step in preparing for housing is to make whatever repairs are necessary in the laying house. Plugging up cracks and crevices, replacing broken windows, and nailing down loose boards will help eliminate drafts. Examine the roof for any necessary repairs. Give the entire building a thorough going-over and make a list of the things that will have to be done and the materials you will need to complete the repair work.

When the house is in good repair, take all movable equipment outside and give it a thorough cleaning and disinfecting. Then allow it to dry in the sun.

Remove all loose litter, and droppings with shovel and broom. Now take a hoe and give the floor and roosting pits a thorough scraping. Sweep the ceilings, walls, nest and floors, eliminating all cob webs, dust, and other filth.

Clean And Disinfect

Next, scrub the floor and roost areas with hot water and strong soap. And while the interior of the house is still damp, spray the walls, floor, and fixtures with a reliable disinfectant. Then allow the house to air and dry.

Now you're ready to place litter on the floor. Many poultrymen cover the floor with a thin layer of sand before adding the litter. This practice, they say, prevents litter from sticking. Select a dry, absorbent litter, and scatter it about the floor. Litter should be about 2 or 3 inches deep. Continue to add litter, as required, during the season.

After litter has been placed in the house, put all equipment in position and get ready to bring the birds off the range.

When he was 18 he began working for the Southern Pacific railroad. In 1906 he quit the railroad and went to farming and stock raising, in which he took much interest until his health failed.

He was married to Miss Agnes Huegele in 1895, and to this union six children were born. One girl died in 1907, and the children who mourn his death are Henrietta Batot, Meta (Mrs. A. E. Weyand), and Hugo of Hondo, Alice (Mrs. J. H. Fischer) and Henry Batot, Jr., of San Antonio. There are also seven grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Three brothers also survive, Leo and Felix of Hondo and Gus of San Antonio.

Mr. Batot had been ailing for several months, although his death came unexpectedly. He was taken to the hospital Monday, Aug. 11, and died the following day with all his children at his bedside.

His wife preceded him in death seven years ago. His remains were laid to rest Aug. 14 at her side.

Reverend Janak had charge of the services, and the pall bearers were all nephews of the deceased, including Milton Batot, Harry Meyer, Raymond Batot, Joe Meyer, Oscar Batot and Allen Huegele.

CASSEROLE SUGGESTION

Put alternate layers of cooked corned beef (cut in cubes), boiled potatoes, and cooked beets in a baking dish. Pour cream sauce over all, top with crumbs and brown in the oven. A touch of grated onion gives extra flavor.

Tuesday Night

CASTROVILLE — The home of Mrs. Joe Sittre was the scene Sunday, Aug. 10, of a birthday party for Mrs. Delbert Galloway. After a barbecue chicken dinner, the attendants spent the afternoon in boating, swimming and playing cards. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Galloway and daughters, Louise, Betty and Pee Wee, Mr. Joe Sittre and Joe, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Paul Iris and family, Mr. and Mrs. Iris Foster and son, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Guennink, Mr. and Mrs. Clemence Empf, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Lawrence and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Reaby, Mrs. Alma Penkert, Mrs. Anna Burrell, Mrs. Ione Crouch and Mrs. Johnson of Hondo, Messers Otto Naegelin, Albert Karm, Marshall Lodge, and Mr. Ohlenburger.

Club Hostess

Thursday Night

Mrs. Robert Zuberbueler entertained with a bridge party Thursday night, Aug. 14. High score winners were Mrs. Martin Ney, first, and Mrs. Tony Taylor second. Mrs. V. L. Boon won high for guests.

Red rose buds were used in decorating the living room. Angel food cake and ice cream were served to the guests named and to Mrs. P. C. Jagge, Walter Bendele and Mrs. Leo Laake as guests, and to Mrs. Bernice Fenger, Mrs. Joe M. Zinsmeyer, Mrs. Herman Fohn, Mrs. Melvin Finger, Miss Connie Koch, and Miss Ursie Lee Rock.

EYERS RETURN
FROM VACATION TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Welton Meyer and children returned Sunday from a week vacation in West Texas and New Mexico. Their first stop was at Marathon to see Mrs. Meyer's sister, Mrs. Lue McKinney and new baby daughter, Jane Elaine, born July 12. Miss Barbara Vaughn, who accompanied them remained in Marathon to spend the week, while the Meyers went on to El Paso to visit Mr. Meyer's brother, Otto Meyer and family.

While in El Paso the two families made a trip into New Mexico, visiting the open pit copper mines and melters, and spent the night in the Black Mountains at an altitude of over 8,000 feet. It was quite cold with a 48 degree temperature on Wednesday morning. A most enjoyable trip was had by the most surprising thing being the beautiful green irrigated farms along the Rio Grande.

Marries In Arizona

Miss Roseanna B. Whitehead of Warren, Arizona, and Roy J. Brucks, formerly of Hondo, were united in marriage Sunday morning, Aug. 3, in the Methodist Church in Warren. Rev. C. L. Cartwright officiated in the double ring ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Boeckmann of Warren, wore a pink crepe dress with brown accessories and a gardenia corsage. Her attendant, Miss Mary Lou Hendricks, wore a blue dress. Albert Boeckmann Jr. served as best man.

Following a wedding breakfast at the bride's home, the couple left on a two weeks wedding trip to Carlsbad Caverns, Kerrville, and Hondo. They have now returned to Arizona where the groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Brucks of Hondo, is employed at the copper mines in Bisbee.

Tuesday Hostess

Mrs. O. E. Lacy entertained with two tables of bridge Tuesday afternoon. During the playing, Mrs. Frank Williams won high and Mrs. Volney Boon second. Others present were Mrs. Ernest Britsch, Mrs. W. A. Bendele, Mrs. Leo Laake, Mrs. Fabian Garrison and Mrs. Minnie Heath.

Zinnias were used in decorating, and fruit punch and cookies were served as refreshments.

Fifth Birthday

Charles Hitzfelder Jr. celebrated his fifth birthday Aug. 12 with a party given by his mother, Mrs. C. J. Hitzfelder. Present were his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. "Dog Days" Myth Too Late To Classify Is Debunked

The American Foundation for Animal Health today struck a blow at a stubborn myth — the old idea that the hot days of late summer are necessarily "dog days."

If "dog days" refers to the season of the greatest trouble with mad dogs, then the term might better be applied to November than to August, a Foundation statement said.

Actually, it was explained, rabies—the mad dog disease—is more prevalent in late fall than during the hot summer. And hot weather apparently has little to do with the prevalence of the disease.

Nevertheless, the American Foundation advised dog and livestock owners to maintain watchful precautions against rabies throughout the year. Although vaccination can be used effectively to prevent rabies, the deadly virus of this disease still causes approximately 10,000 reported cases in the United States every year.

"Rabies can be controlled and even eradicated," the statement said, "if states and counties adopt a systematic program of control, based on vaccination, quarantine, compulsory licensing of dogs, and strict control of stray dogs."

NUMBER 5 IN A SERIES ON HONDO BUSINESS FIRMS

The Story of Grell and Moehring and How They Grew To Be G & M

John Henry Boehle is a true artist when it comes to making an attractive display out of an ordinary pile of produce.

It was back in 1939 that two Hondoans, Herbert Moehring and Marvin Grell, engaged in a small produce business in which they made daily hauls along the various country routes, realized two things: they suddenly realized that they had made good friends with country people for many miles around Hondo just because they themselves were friendly and accomodating, and they realized that the accommodation and friendliness might be the true basis of real success even in the furore of much bigger business.

Now in 1947 they have found both to be true, for now, eight years later, Grell and Moehring have developed the G. and M. Grocery into one of the largest grocery markets in Medina County, if not the largest.

Grell and Moehring literally started on a shoestring. In 1939 they halted their produce business and started retailing in Hondo, and a year and a half later they moved to their present location. It was a big move for them then, although the site of their present business place was only a "hole in the wall."

The North end was occupied by a Red Cross room there, and a cafe occupied the south end. The G. and M. Grocery, then, was little more than 20 feet wide.

moved out, making way for what is now the G. and M. produce department. Along about '44 or '45 the cafe folded up and Grell and Moehring took over that area also. The business now employs 15 people, 12 of them on a full time basis.

Grell and Moehring are both native Medina County people, Moehring being born and raised in Hondo and Grell coming in from Quiahi at a very early age. The business is now owned solely by Herb Moehring, since Grell sold out his half of the partnership a week ago, but the name will continue as "G. and M."

How much money do people spend for groceries?

It's a difficult question to answer. There is no way of knowing just how much one can spend in a month, and the groceryman never knows if his credit customers buy all their meats and other foodstuffs from him only.

According to G. and M. credit lists, however, the average Medina County couple with two children spends about $70 per month for the month's supplies. Some of the bills run up as high as $135 or $140 monthly. These accounts are the larger families, usually, but in some instances a small, large, person family will put that much into their groceries in one month.

The Hondo Anvil Herald, Medina County, Texas, Friday, August 22, 1947

Visitors to national forests totaled 55 million in 1946, compared with 1932 on soybean research has resulted in a total crop value of several billion dollars.

$50,000 spent between 1920 and 1932 on soybean research has resulted in a total crop value of several billion dollars.

For the Benefit of Our Locker Customers

We will offer this new savings plan beginning Sept. 21, 1947
We will have for your inspection various types of beef
September 2nd.

IN VIEW OF THE FACT THAT THE COST OF MEAT HAS INCREASED TO THE POINT THAT A WHOLE CALF IS TOO MUCH INVESTMENT FOR THE AVERAGE FAMILY TO BUY AT ONE TIME, WE BELIEVE THAT 50% OF OUR CUSTOMERS ARE NOW BUYING THEIR MEAT FROM THE RETAIL MARKET. THIS APPEARS TO CUT DOWN THE MEAT BILL, HOWEVER; IN THE LONG RUN THE MEAT BOUGHT IN THIS WAY ACTUALLY COSTS AT LEAST 20% MORE.

AS WE ARE HERE TO SERVE OUR LOCKER RENTERS AND SAVE THEM MONEY ON THEIR MEAT AND PRODUCE BILLS, WE WILL SELL HALF OR QUARTER OF CALF AT COST PRICE PLUS PROCESSING TO THE LOCKER. APPROXIMATELY 35c PER POUND. OUR PRICES WILL BE REASONABLE ENOUGH FOR THE RANCHMAN TO SEND HIS CALVES TO MARKET AND PURCHASE THE CUT OF MEAT HE DESIRES AT A SAVING OF 4 TO 5%.

THIS PLAN IS ALSO FOR THE DEEP FREEZE OWNER.

As an added attraction we are now handling pasteurized dairy products and a wide variety of luncheon meats and loaves.

TEUPS SEEN AS LEAGUE PLAY DRAWS TO CLOSE; HONDO, UTOPIA, D'HANIS LAST WEEK'S VICTORS

One tie is assured and another seems probable when the teams of the Highway 90 League line up for their closing battles of the regular playing season Sunday.

One team, either Quihi, LaCoste or Utopia, is bound to tie for fourth with Rio Medina as the Riomen remain idle, their season already closed, just a half a game ahead of the final three teams. Quihi travels to Utopia this Sunday, so one of those teams is bound to win and tie Rio. LaCoste plays at Castroville, and if LaCoste wins it will create a three-way tie for fourth place.

Elsewhere if LaCoste loses to Castroville and if D'Hanis loses to Hondo, it will create a tie between D'Hanis and Castroville for second place. The lions will play at D'Hanis in quest of their seventeenth straight victory, and D'Hanis is determined to halt their march.

So the way it looks now, it's going to take a regular double county series to straighten out the standings when the curtain is pulled on the season Sunday.

Lions At Fair In Fredericksburg

Hondo's Lions, leaders of the Highway 90 League with 15 straight victories, travel to Fredericksburg this weekend where they will play one of the strongest teams in that area, the Fredericksburg Giants.

Occasion for the journey and exhibition is the fifty-ninth annual Gillespie County Fair, oldest county exposition in Texas, which will run Aug. 22, 23, and 24.

The Fredericksburg Fair is famous for its livestock shows, agricultural displays, ladies culinary and needlework exhibits, commercial displays and for the outstanding entertainments presented daily.

Horse racing and baseball games are slated for each afternoon, the famed Fredericksburg Centennial Band will play concerts daily and the Don Franklin Shows of Houston, one of the largest and cleanest carnivals on the fair circuits, have been booked to furnish the carnival attractions.

On Saturday a baseball game will be played between the Hondo Owls and Fredericksburg Giants. This contest will pit two strong baseball clubs, both with good season records, and should be a most interesting game.

A 3000-seat grandstand that serves both for the races and baseball, adds to the comfort of the visitors. The fair grounds have been greatly improved in expansion program the past year. The race track has been modernized, the large exhibition hall cleared and many additional barns and stalls have been built and many other improvements made.

Fredericksburg's fair has always been known for its many other attractions for the whole family and the Fredericksburg delegation extended a cordial invitation to local citizens to attend this year's fair which promises to be both the largest and best in its long history.

Bless Drills With San Marcos Football Team

Football season is just around the corner, and Southwest Texas State College is preparing for one of its biggest seasons in history. Nineteen returning lettermen will bolster the 1947 grid machine.

Optimistic reports were made after the conclusion of spring training last April. Spectators at the traditional intrasquad game were particularly impressed by the aggressiveness and brawn displayed by the grididers under the guidance of Head Coach George Vest.

Taking part in the spring training season and playing in the intrasquad game was Franklin Bless of Hondo who worked at the fullback post in the T-formation backfield. Mrs. A. J. O'Connell of Hondo and Martha Heath of Natalia are among the students attending Southwest Texas State College who are participating in the Summer Chorus.

The Chorus is composed entirely of students of the College and is directed by Mrs. Katherine Verity. The group meets twice weekly in practice sessions.

The highlight of the summer for the Chorus came last week when a special musical program was presented at an assembly of the student body of the Southwest Texas State.

540 Seats Added At Hondo Field

With the addition of two new sections of seats on the west side of the football stadium, 540 seats are provided above the number in the stands already at the field to better handle the crowds of Owl fans attending games this season.

Season tickets are now available, according to Supt. H. C. Richards, and on sale at $3.75 for all regularly scheduled home games. Season tickets can be obtained by calling Mrs. Kromi Leinweber at the school prior to Sept. 5.

Tickets for individual games will be placed on sale at the office of the Hondo Electric system on Monday preceding the home games, all of which will be played on Friday nights. No orders for tickets for individual games will be taken at the Electric office by telephone.

Holders of season tickets may pick them up at the Electric system office.

VOTE TODAY

Balloting for Most Valuable Players of the various teams of the Highway 90 League and of the entire league will close Sunday, Aug. 24. Entries must be postmarked not later than Sunday to be counted. CLIP OUT THE BALLOT AND VOTE.

D'HANIS 18, RIO MEDINA 5

D'Hanis, tired of taking it on the chin, showed much of its former potency last Sunday when they performed flawlessly in the field, banged out 15 hits and capitalized on 8 Rio errors for their one-sided triumph.

Ep Finger went the route for D'Hanis, scattering 10 hits which included a triple by Wurzbach and a homer by L. Lutz. C. and A. Boehme both tried to stem the D'Hanis tide but the Pirate hitters had the range. H. Nester clouted out 5 hits in 6 attempts.

UTOPIA 11, LACOSTE 9

Rampant Utopia, showing real teeth as the season draws to a close, downed an equally gallant LaCoste nine last Sunday by a two run margin, hammering across six runs off L. Trip in eight innings and then ganging up on Geiger in the final frame for five more. LaCoste led 3-6 in the last of the eighth.

The Boosters contributed nine errors to the Utopia victory while Utopia committed four miscues themselves.

SUNDAY DRIVE
recently opened our eyes to several

CHANGING OUR FUNDAMENTAL LAW.

First of all was a realization that Texas has been spending a lot of money for highways since the advent of automotive vehicles. And withal, he has some wonderful roads.

A drive to the picturesque little town of Leakey, the county-seat of Medina County, necessitated a nearly twenty mile drive due west from Hondo, over Highway 90 to Sabinal, where almost a right angle turn was made to the northwest. Arrived at Leakey on Highway 83, we reflected that it was almost an airline straight through Utopia in a southerly direction to Hondo. And we marveled with regret the time when Hondo shut both eyes and ears to Utopia's appeal to her for co-operation in securing a straight road between the two points. Had Hondo wakened to the importance of such thoroughfare at that time, it might have been extended on to Leakey in the meantime and we could have driven to our destination over a straight highway at a considerable saving in both mileage and time.

Is Hondo destined to remain invisible of the vast importance to her such a highway while this vast road building program goes on all around her?

At Leakey we found Highway 83 leading off in a northeasterly direction "temporarily" to Mountain home where it makes almost a U-turn back northwest to Junction to get back to its "permanent" course to the north, through Texas and across the United States to the Canadian border. This detour, while affording the sight-seer an interesting tour, imposes a needless hardship on the traveling public that would be removed by the completion of the un-

CARRIZO'S WORST FIRE

Worst fire in the history of Carrizo Springs threatened the depot, the Sinclair and Texaco warehouses and the entire northeast section of town two weeks ago and finally ended up by doing $365,000 worth of damage to the business district, according to the Javelin.

The Javelin, however, added up the costs in another way and found that the loss of 15 per cent good fire record credit plus penalty of 25 per cent spelled a 40 per cent increase in insurance premiums all Carrizo Springs property owners would have to pay. Only way to offset the increase, says the Javelin, is to get some new equipment which is badly needed, which would lower the key rate.

SLOT MACHINES GO

Bandera County and other Medina Lake resorts lost a number of slot machines and a number of operators were fined last week when the Rangers raided and collected.

Previously when the Rangers showed up the machines were hidden in time. This time an undercover man cased the situation first and there were no slippups.

New Laws Change Time Limits On Vet Claims

The proponents of the measure, of course, have been active in its advocacy and have left unexploited no single reason that can be offered in its behalf.

On the otherhand, the only organized opposition that has come to our attention is from the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

To our mind their opposition is without a valid basis.

They oppose the repeal of the Confederate Veteran's Pension Amendment, which has about served its purpose in caring for the Veterans and their widows, on the grounds that the seven-cent tax should be retained for the benefit of veterans of later wars.

They ignore the fact that all veterans of the last three wars are "Un-

Recent congressional action formally declaring July 25, 1947, as the date for termination of the War in title five of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act will affect both unemployed and Self employed veterans.

It simply means that World War Two veterans discharged before July 26, 1947, will now have only two years from that date in which to claim their allowances and veterans discharged after July 25, 1947, will have two years from the date of their discharge to avail themselves of the benefit of the act. Veterans who enlisted or re-enlisted before October 6, 1945, and October 6, 1946, will not be affected by the July 25, 1947, date. The termination of the war for this last group will be the end of their Strike while the iron is hot, let the sparks fall where they will.

By The Editor

In the exchange column this week there is a brief account of the terrible fire in Carrizo Spring which did $365,000 worth of damage and threatened one entire section of the town.

The Carrizo paper claims that much of this loss was due to poor fire fighting equipment — an old truck that is practically impotent when confronted by a large fire. Crystal City's modern equipment saved much of Carrizo.

But Vic was quoted by the Monitor as saying he still had a thumb left, so it would be easy to call them out — he is, says, in perfect condition for umpiring.

CRYSTAL CITY MERGER

By a score of 21 to 19, Zavala County voters two weeks ago voted to make the Cometa area a part of the Crystal City independent school District. Little Cometa had little to say about the matter, voting against it nearly two to one but still losing to the large majority of the Crystal City vote.

Ceremony

For Wainwright

FORT SAM HOUSTON, TEXAS — General Jonathan M. Wainwright, Fourth Army Commander, will be honored at formal ceremonies here Aug. 31, the General's last day of duty on the active list of the Army. The hero of Bataan and Corregidor retires to civilian life after more than forty-five years of service, and will make his home in San Antonio.

Troops from Fort Sam Houston and Camp Hood will stage a parade and review at 3 o'clock the afternoon of Aug. 31 and a contingent of 40th Air Force planes will join in the salute to General Wainwright as they fly low before the reviewing stand on Arthur MacArthur Field. Distinguished military and civilian leaders from the five-state Fourth Army area will participate in the ceremonies.

The public is invited to attend the parade and review and plans are being made to accommodate the record crowd that is expected to assemble to pay their respects to the popular World War II hero.

enlistment or re-enlistment period.

Any veteran who needs any further explanation of the above should contact the County Service Officer, A. A. Murrell, Courthouse, Hondo, Texas.

If you happen to dream about killing a bear, that's lucky, according to dream books. But if you just dream about seeing a bear, that's bad — you're warned to avoid overconfidence and to be careful when traveling.

Dreamers, and all people who tend to get sleepy after too many hours behind the wheel, need that warning. Fatigue is an opiate — reactions become slower, judgement dulls, although the driver is hardly aware of it. Lulled by the rhythm of the engine, hypnotized by the ribbon of road ahead, an overtired brain often blanks out for a short second — long enough for a fatal sideswipe or head-on collision.

National Conservation Bureau safety specialists say the best cure for fatigue is prevention — limiting the hours of driving; pulling up at intervals for a cup of coffee or a bite to eat. Dreaming of bears is always luckier in bed than on the highway!

states developed "Save A Life" campaigns.

There has been steady development to a pre-war total of 8,500,000 motor vehicles being regularly inspected from one to four times each year in 17 states and 15 cities.

Now, two years after V-J Day, this nationwide program has been 100% resumed with at least 2 states added to the list and 10 additional ones giving serious consideration to legislation requiring periodic motor vehicle inspection in the interest of accident prevention.

In the United States, 2,718,076 vehicles were checked: 872,290 or 32.1% had defects. In Canada police checked 128,814 vehicles, 44,107, or 34.2% of which were defective.

In the State of New Jersey, during the first motor vehicle inspection year, there were 413 fewer fatalities or a reduction of 30%, as compared with the preceding year. Total reportable accidents and non-fatal injuries also decreased 18%. This substantial reduction has been consistently sustained through the years.

Motor vehicle inspections in the United States have been recognized as an accident prevention medium since 1927, when several eastern states developed "Save A Life" campaigns.

(1) It improves the general standard of vehicle condition.

(2) It maintains an automobile at a higher level by lessening depreciation.

(3) It affords opportunity to check motor and serial numbers actually on the vehicle against registration certificates, and in other ways to assist in the enforcement of motor vehicle laws.

(4) It improves the quality of garage workmanship in making adjustments and repairs.

(5) It provides an excellent opportunity to inform drivers about the condition of their cars and their responsibility for driving safely 365 days in the year.

(6) The psychological effect on the driver is considerable, for the motorist who has been shown that his brakes meet only the minimum requirements will tend to drive more carefully.

WITH COLD MEATS

If the main dish of the meal is cold sliced meat, it's a good idea to have one of the other items a hot dish. It may be hot soup served at the beginning of the meal, a fresh-cooked hot vegetable, or a casserole dish. Here are a few suggestions all good with cold meats: Baked macaroni or noodles with cheese, broccoli with Hollandaise sauce, scalloped potatoes and onions, succotash.

- BUT I WAS RIGHT DEAD RIGHT!

"I was going into that intersection first. I had the right of way—that truck driver should have stopped when he saw me—I was right, dead right!"

"Yes dear—you always were right—the other fellow always wrong. That's why we're here."

You know the kind, you've met him on the road—and ducked. He always barges through traffic when it's a question of split-second judgment. Never anticipates other drivers' actions—just assumes that traffic will give way. Owns the road. Drives with his horn.

He may get away with it for a time, plus a few tickets, because other drivers are more careful, more conscientious. But his kind eventually steps on the gas once too often—and for the last time he is "right—dead right!"

4,000 people died last year because "know-it-all" drivers violated rules of the road and the courtesies of driving. Good drivers never need to hold cemetery post-mortems. They drive carefully and live longer.

Texas' New International Building

San Antonio's Casa de Mexico International Building, first structure in the nation built specifically to house firms doing business with Latin American countries, now is in final stages of completion. Consul General of Mexico was the first tenant.

SAN ANTONIO — Casa de Mexico International Building, the only structure in the nation planned and constructed to house the activities of firms doing business with Latin-American countries, now is in the final stages of completion on West Houston Street in San Antonio.

First tenant to take up quarters in the million-dollar structure is the Consul General of Mexico in San Antonio, Gustavo Ortiz Hernan. Others who moved in during the past week were the Mexican government tourist bureau and the Mexican Chamber of Commerce.

The International Building was constructed by G. A. Lucchese, president of International Enterprises, and the development eventually will include a 2,500-seat motion picture theatre. Lucchese conceived the five-story structure and its 87 offices as a center for the "promotion of trade, travel, commerce and culture between the people of the United States and the people of Latin America."

Designed by San Antonio architectural firm, the building has many unique details, some of which have been taken from San Antonio's historic missions. Many of the features are an interesting combination of modern French and Mexican architecture. An Auditorium with a seating capacity of 150 will be available for the building's tenants.

College Wants Student Driver

Southwest Texas Jr. College of Uvalde has a good opportunity waiting for the right man.

The college is scheduling a regular bus run between the college and Hondo to carry Medina County students, and wants a student from Hondo to pilot the bus.

Besides his pay for driving, it also means the student would have his own transportation furnished free. The student must be 21 or over, must be able to pass the chauffeur test before starting, and must be a high school graduate. The State Highway station in Hondo can give any enterprising students the answers on what he must do to become a bus driver.

Kathleen Norris Says: Have You a Dictator in Your Home?

Bell Syndicate.—WNU Features.

"She asked him what his salary was, and nodded her head and said, 'That's enough!'"

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

A MAN I know says cheerfully that he has no troubles that a whole lot of money wouldn't cure. Most of us are in that position, or think we are. If we subtracted from the dreadful sum total of marital failures the element of money, we should remove their most common cause.

The extravagant wife and the penurious husband. Or the spendthrift man and the anxious, thrifty wife. The poker debts. The things the little woman is buying on the installment plan. The discouraged angry talks about accumulating bills and inevitable expenses. To say nothing of the marriages that are contracted simply because there is money on one side or the other.

A woman named Frances Grant writes me from Rochester, and presents a new angle on the money problem. Like all human tangles, it has aspects that no novelist could imagine. Frances is 39, her husband, Ward, a few years older; they have three teen-age girls.

"Ward has always been manager of his mother's business ever since I first knew him," writes Frances. "It isn't a very large business, but it brings us in a good income now, and if Ward inherited it he could consider himself a well-to-do man. His mother draws what she wants from it, always in the neighborhood of three or four hundred a month, which some day should mean a very handsome addition to our resources. Ward and his mother always have been affectionate and close, and the girls and I make a good deal of Grandma. We have always lived together in the old Grant home.

Hendy Takes Over.

"About two years ago Grandma Grant had a slight stroke, and she has rarely left her room since, except perhaps for an occasional drive and once or twice for very special occasions, weddings or reunions of old, old friends. We have one faithful old servant in the kitchen, but she could not give Grandma the care she had to have, nor was all that the girls and I could do enough, so we engaged a practical nurse, a plain woman about 40, who has now been with us more than a year. At first Grandma didn't like Hendy at all, nor did any of us, but she is efficiency itself, and we very swiftly felt that having her in the house was a great help.

"After a while Grandma grew more and more to like, and finally to adore Hendy. It has reached the point now when even Ward dare not go into his mother's room without her consent. She continues agreeable and helpful enough when she comes downstairs, but for the most part the two women live in their own rooms. Hendy has set up a little kitchen there, and often appears only long enough to secure provisions from the kitchen.

"Grandma quotes Hendy, looks at her lovingly, laughs at her jokes, tells us how wonderful she is. A few days ago she told Ward that she wanted all the details of the family business explained to Hendy, and Hendy went over to the plant and inspected everything, and Ward says asked a thousand questions. She asked him what his salary is, and nodded her head, he said, and said 'That's enough.'

"That afternoon Grandma changed her will and left everything she possessed, silver, books, house, business, to Mrs. Henderson. Hendy herself just said to Ward amusedly, 'Oh, let her have her whims,' but the family lawyer was simply outraged by what went on, we know

UNEXPECTED CALAMITY

A sudden and utterly unexpected circumstance threatens the future happiness of Frances Grant and her family. Her husband is manager of a prosperous little business. It is owned by a woman whom he calls "Mother." She reared him affectionately, educated him and gave him his present excellent situation. Unfortunately, she never adopted him legally, so Ward has no solid claim to any inheritance.

Now the old lady, "Grandma" Grant, who has been bedridden for two years, has decided to leave the business and all her other property to her nurse. This nurse, a Mrs. Henderson, has given Ward to understand that when she takes over he will have to follow orders or get out. Ward has no claim on anything, the family lawyer has told him. Unless there is a new will, Mrs. Henderson will get everything—even the house in which they are all living.

Frances Grant writes that she and Ward are "frantic with nervous apprehension." Mrs. Norris replies that she doesn't see that much can be done about the situation. She advises Ward to look for another job right now if he can. If Grandma Grant realized that Ward was ready to quit, it might jar her into a change of heart.

that, and when Ward went to him he indicated that matters were as bad as they could be.

He Has No Rights.

"Ward went to ask what his rights were as a son, but the bad thing is that Ward isn't Grandma's real son, he is not even adopted. She just took him because he reminded her of a son she had lost; it was never made legal. I knew he was 'adopted,' but not that it wasn't a regular adoption.

"Our lawyer feels that in case of Grandma's death, as things are now, we would have no claim at all.

"Ward doesn't like Hendy, and she obviously dislikes him, so that his position as manager of the works would be precarious indeed if he had to hold it under Hendy.

"My girls are 13, 15 and 16, just at the age when they need social security. I am simply frantic at the idea that this smug, quiet woman, who comes and goes as she pleases, can wreck all our plans in this way.

"I have no idea that you can suggest any possible solution, but if there is anything we can do, please help us. Both Ward and I—and the girls, too—are frantic with nervous apprehension."

Frances, this is a wretched situation, and not an unusual one, either. Strong men fall in love with pretty nurses, and dependent old women come to love the attendants who make them comfortable. Could Ward look about for another job, even if he means to use it only as a threat? Would an appeal from him to his mother have any effect? You have had things very easy, evidently, for all your married years. This is your first real trouble. Face it philosophically; the old lady may change her mind again. She may live 10 years. Be as patient and as cheerful as you can now, and wait for the tide to turn.

Girl Wins Opera Role
A stroke of luck, good looks and a "nice voice" raised Leni Lynn, 22-year-old revue and film singer from Passaic, N. J., to her first operatic role. It was "Sophie" in Richard Strauss' "Der Rosenkavalier" at the royal opera house, Covent Garden, in London, England. Miss Lynn, whose first public success was achieved in her home town, won the coveted assignment and a contract after an audition, which grew out of a chance recommendation.

Washington MERRY-GO-ROUND by DREW PEARSON

Scorecard on Congress

WASHINGTON.—As the first session of the 80th congress comes to an end, there will be the usual hoopla, back-slapping, cloakroom quaffing and singing of the Star-Spangled Banner. But as far as the general public is concerned, there is little to get up and wave the flag about.

This newsman, who has covered Washington for a long time, regrets to say that he has never seen a congress so dominated by lobbies, and with its ear so eagerly to the ground to catch the faintest whisper of desire from the big contributors who ponied up the campaign funds. Out of a dozen congresses I have seen come and go—some good, some bad, some indifferent—never since the Harding days has there been a congress which so flagrantly flouted its promises and its principles.

Here is the scorecard of what the 80th congress did and what it did not accomplish:

HOUSING—Congress did a lot of talking but no acting on the housing shortage. Veterans who once lived in foxholes continued living with their in-laws. Congress removed priorities for veterans housing and gave the green light to bowling alleys, roller coasters, skating rinks, race tracks and all commercial construction.

RENTS—Under the guise of continuing rent control, congress gave landlords the benefit of a "gun-point" 15 per cent "voluntary" rent increase which materially boosted the cost of living.

REAL-ESTATE LOBBY—Every Washington newsman knew how flagrantly the real-estate lobby swarmed over Capitol Hill. Yet when President Truman urged its investigation, several senators denounced him and claimed the lobby didn't exist.

EDUCATION—While school teachers were quitting by the thousands in almost every state in the union, congress stalled for six long months on a bill to help the states increase teachers' pay. In the end it passed nothing.

FLOOD CONTROL—While the worst floods in recent history ripped down the Mississippi-Missouri valleys, destroying crops and carrying countless tons of topsoil into the sea, congress refused to appropriate funds for flood control. Furthermore, the house appropriations committee even cut the agriculture department's soil-erosion program.

MONOPOLY AND SMALL BUSINESS—When the White House urged legislation to curb monopoly and aid small business, congress proceeded instead to introduce and pass through one house:

1. The Bulwinkel bill giving the railroads exemption from anti-trust laws;

2. The Rizley bills, exempting the big gas companies from certain types of regulation by the federal power commission.

RECLAMATION—Despite the need of more irrigated farmland and more western water power, western reclamation projects were cut to the bone. A worried senate, however, restored a good part of the reclamation funds slashed in the house of representatives.

FARM PROGRAM—While the private power lobby was introducing nonregulation bills in the house of representatives, Republican leaders in the house slashed appropriations for rural electrification, also for soil conservation, crop insurance and other vital parts of the farm program. This caused a split inside Republican ranks with many Midwestern Republicans differing from their leaders. Finally the senate restored a large part of the farm cuts.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WELFARE—Although the President asked permission to establish a new department of public welfare, badly needed for some years, no legislation was passed.

MILITARY INJUSTICE—Despite shocking abuses of military courts-martial under which enlisted men have languished in prison for petty offenses, neither branch of congress undertook any probe of military justice.

MINE SAFETY—When the Centralia, Ill., mine disaster cost 111 lives, congress started an immediate investigation and there were many sympathetic speeches. However, congress adjourned without taking any permanent step toward mine safety.

FINANCIAL RECORDS—Labor unions now are required under the Taft-Hartley act to reveal their financial records to the public. However, when Senators Morse of Oregon and Taylor of Idaho introduced a bill requiring members of congress to register their own "outside fees" with the securities and exchange commission, the bill promptly was bottled up in the rules committee.

MINIMUM WAGE—After passing the Taft-Hartley act against labor, Republican leaders decided to even the score by raising the hourly minimum wage from 40 to 65 cents. However, their GOP colleagues refused to go along.

Most Versatile Robot Could Walk, Smoke, Count, Talk

The most versatile mechanical man ever constructed was made by an American and exhibited in New York City in 1939-1940. Upon a spoken command, this seven-foot 260-pound robot would perform any one of 26 actions such as walk, smoke, count on his fingers and speak, using a vocabulary of 77 words. Most incredible of all, his intricate electrical mechanism—tubes, motors, relays, coils—contained no less than 24,900 miles of wire.

HOUSEHOLD MEMOS... by Lynn Chambers

Can Your Most Luscious Fruit
(See recipe below.)

Fruit Preserving

This is the year many women have waited for—the year when they could obtain unlimited quantities of sugar to put up all the fruit in their orchards, and berries in their patches.

For many of us, it has been so long since we put up fruit in any quantity that a quick brush-up of methods is essential. As in all big undertakings, the underlying organizational work is most important, and this can be done the day before.

The day before you begin actual canning, check on equipment to be sure that it works properly. For fruit and berry canning you will need a water bath, which may be a large kettle or broiler, fitted with a rack, and a tightly fitting cover. Or, you also may use a pressure cooker for processing, but this is not as essential for fruits as it is for vegetables.

You will need several large pans and kettles for preparing the fruit and for making the syrup. You also will need to prepare jars, checking them for cracks and imperfections, and washing them in hot soapy suds. Make certain you have enough covers or lids.

Estimating Amounts

Although fruits and berries vary in size and moisture content, it is still possible to make some sort of estimate as to how much syrup and the number of jars you will need.

For sweet fruits, you will use a syrup made of 2 cups of sugar to 4 cups of water; for slightly acid fruit, use 2 cups of sugar to 3 cups of water; for acid fruit, 2 cups of sugar to 2 cups of water is ample.
If the fruit is very acid, 2 cups of sugar to 1 cup of water is essential.

The syrup is made simply by adding the sugar to the water and boiling together for 5 minutes.

If you are canning large fruits such as peaches and pears, allow 1 pint of syrup to a quart jar of fruit. For small fruit, or berries, you will need only a half pint of syrup to the quart.

The amount of fruit usually depends upon the size, but ordinarily we count 2 pounds of fruit for the quart jar. This will aid in estimating your yield.

Method of Packing

Some fruits and berries are hot-packed, but most women prefer using the cold pack method for preparing fruit for canning as it takes less time. If the fruit is carefully packed, there will be little floating.

Wash and clean the fruit, peeling and coring, slicing and stoning when necessary. Pack into sterile jars and attach the lid, using manufacturers' directions.

Process by placing the fruits in a boiling water bath, making certain that the water comes to two inches above the jars. If the water tends to boil away during the processing time, it's a good idea to have a kettle of boiling water near by from which the supply can be readily replenished.

Count the processing time from the time the water starts boiling.

When processing time is finished, remove jars (with a jar lifter to prevent burning the fingers) and place on thick layers of newspaper to cool.

For many of the new type lids, the manufacturer does not approve inverting the jar to test for leaks.
This is one reason for not inverting certain types of jars.

When the jars are cool, wipe them off, label and store in a cool, dark place.

Use This Time Table

If you are using the water bath, which is recommended by most experts, you will want to observe the processing time very carefully.

The following fruits are processed for 20 minutes: apricots, blackberries, blueberries, cherries, currants, gooseberries, peaches, pears, plums, raspberries, rhubarb and strawberries.

Apples and pineapple, processed in the same type of water bath, will require 30 minutes, while quinces require 35 minutes.

If you are using the pressure cooker for processing, keep the indicator between 5 and 10 pounds
pressure and process all fruits, except pineapple and quinces, for 10 minutes. The two exceptions will require 15 minutes processing.

If you are using the cold pack method for processing, keep the indicator between 5 and 10 pounds
pressure and process all fruits, except pineapple and quinces, for 10 minutes. The two exceptions will require 15 minutes processing.

What makes fruit and tomatoes float? Too much processing, too heavy a syrup or too loose a pack may be the causes.

Why should fruit for canning be uniform in size and ripeness? Fruit should be evenly ripe and about the

Can I can over-ripe fruit? No, it's too difficult to get a good product.
Use over-ripe fruit and berries for fruit butters as the fruit will have to be mashed and there is enough sugar to act as a preservative.

EDITORIAL - FEATURES

Editor's Corner

It is an indisputable fact that over 90 per cent of the traffic accidents which annually take the lives of some 33,500 persons could have been avoided. The human foibles of inattention and deliberate risk-taking are the main causes of the slaughter on our streets and highways.

Pure mechanical failure, according to some safety experts, accounts for less than one per cent of automobile accidents.

It is true that in many fatal accidents, mechanical failure was a contributing cause — brakes failed to grab, lights went out, steering apparatus didn't respond properly. But these cases were not pure mechanical failure, because human carelessness was the underlying cause. The owners and drivers of the accident vehicles had failed to keep their automobiles in safe condition, and in many cases they had imprudently driven the automobiles when they knew that they were mechanically defective. In short, the drivers were either not attentive or they deliberately took a chance.

Individual responsibility can stop this menace. Every member of the American public must take it upon himself to accept the responsibility of observing the rules of safety and the road.

At the same time, the police and administrative officials of our states have the responsibility of minimizing the hazards caused by those careless people who fail or refuse to obey the rules. Every state should require periodic and rigid inspection of all autos to see that they are kept in safe driving condition. A recent check of nearly three million vehicles, made by the International Association of Chiefs of Police, showed that one out of every three vehicles has a mechanical defect which makes it a menace in traffic. These defects are not in the construction of the automobile, but rather in things like lights and brakes which the drivers should keep in safe working condition.

If thousands of persons are to be saved from needless death this coming year and in the years to follow, periodic required motor vehicle inspection by all states would seem to be an important prerequisite.

finished gap between Leakey and Junction. This delay is attributed to the selfishness of Kerr County in refusing to furnish the right-of-way through the western end of the county, where it would divert some traffic in both directions from the Mountain Home route; but be that as it may, were Leakey and Junction as alert as they should be and as these times demand to the importance of this link they would overcome this and all other difficulties by some means.

The drive from Concan, via Leakey to Mountain Home, Kerrville, Bandera and Tarpley is not unlike a drive through the Ozarks of Northern Arkansas, and one need not go to the latter in search of prettier mountain scenery or greater thrills than that afforded by a drive by Horsecollar Bluff out of Leakey or twisting around "Hairpin" Bend on the road between Kerrville and Bluff in Bandera County. If you want to see mountain scenery see Texas' first.

On our nearly two hundred-mile circuit from in front of our residence and return, we drove over a paved highway every mile of the way except for a short strip from where the Bandera County paving ends in Tarpley to where Medina County's begins at the county line south of that town. Surely Bandera County will close that gap?

In the meantime, Hondo should not neglect the matter most vital to her future—the opening of North Front Street as a 100-foot thoroughfare and onward in a northwesterly direction from the town to a junction with 83, thus making Hondo the "cross-roads" for two international highways.

FUNDAMENTAL LAW
ion" veterans and are under the care of the Federal Government; whereas, the Confederate Veterans were the victims of a "lost cause" in behalf of the States they served and could claim largess from no other source save their state.

The Confederate Veteran's pension tax was to care for them and them alone and should pass into disuse with the passing of the last of their dependents.

Surely no loyal descendant of such a sire would seek to longer perpetuate this special bounty for the benefit of this later generation and especially not those being so liberally cared for by the Federal government.

It seems to this writer that a more valid objection lies in the evident purpose of the politicians to controve ne this natural dissolution of the Confederate Pension Tax by diverting it to another purpose and thus making a political football of what was begun as a sacred benefaction to a now almost extinct class.

That such is the purpose of the proponents of the proposal is evidenced by their effort to secure approval of the whole scheme by tying in with it matters pertaining to our public school system which should be left to Legislative action instead of being imbedded in our fundamental law.

They figure that anything proposed as a plea for our schools will carry without any question.

They may be right; but if they are it is to be hoped they show us at least the backing of a majority of the qualified voters.

You will go to the polls to vote for the college building amendment tomorrow.

We editorialized about it last week. We didn't editorialize against the amendment, but against the verbal subterfuge used by politicians on the tax issue. In answer we drew rebukes for our foolishness in even hinting that the amendment was anything but all glistening and golden and sent from heaven.

Maybe they're all right, these people who are fighting so hard for it. But some things still look strange. For instance, this amendment is so sure of passing we can't help but wonder why they are all spending so much money and putting up such an extensive campaign to support it.

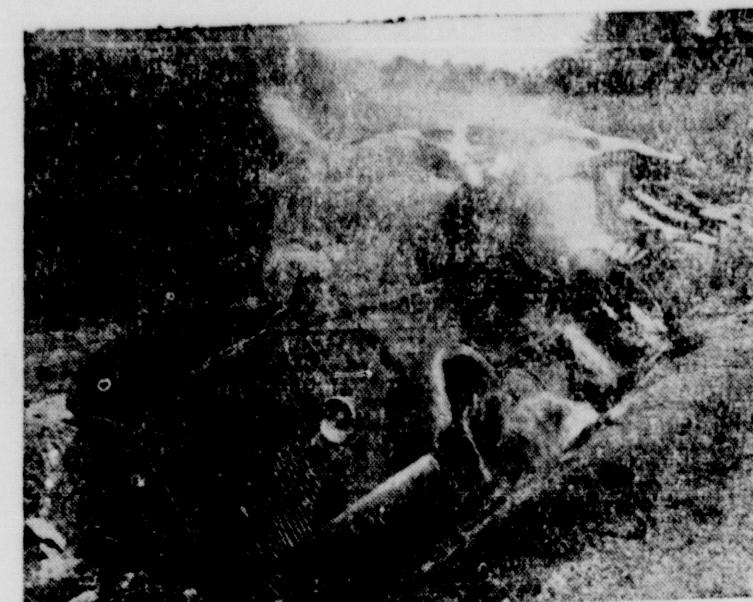

And we can't help but wonder if it isn't some hot idea footballed through the legislature which will eliminate, at least for 30 years, any chance any other small schools of Texas have of ever getting slices of the tremendous building money coming into the U. of T. and A. and M. from the rich oil properties from which those two schools reap all the benefits.

A newspaper is supposed to be always independent, never neutral. But we don't have enough money to pay good Austin reporters to find out anything about this issue, and perhaps it is a righteous and forthright measure to help the smaller schools.

One thing seems certain. The smaller schools probably won't ever have a chance to get slices of the oil funds, so this will be their only chance. They need a chance.

But there is never any such thing as a free tax.

Story Of A Lawbreaker

A careless pedestrian was to blame for the wrecking of this truck and the death of its driver. As the pedestrian suddenly crossed the road, directly in front of the truck, the driver swerved off the roadway and his machine overturned in the ditch where it immediately caught fire. Driver was pinned in the front seat and burned to death before he could be extricated.

Letters To The Editor

JUST LIKE A LETTER FROM HOME, HE SAYS

J. K. McLeese of San Diego, California, will get his copy of The Anvil Herald every week for another year now. Relatives here renewed for him and quote him as saying "It's just like a letter from home every week, and a lot of reading material, too."

FIVE DAY VACATION TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Leinweber and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard O'Neill and son have returned from a five day vacation trip to Rock Springs, Carlsbad Caverns, New Mexico, El Paso, Fort Davis and McDonald Observatory on Mount Looke, coming home through Del Rio.

COOL BUT SATISFYING

Make hearty sandwiches of thinly sliced left-over lamb roast, thoroughly chilled. Sprinkle meat with salt, spread one slice of bread lightly with mint jelly.
